

I oppose RM-10810. Technology has made Morse obsolete so those who enjoy it should not be allowed to use it to keep otherwise qualified people out of certain Amateur bands. All Morse requirements should be eliminated forthwith. I also oppose combining Technician and General classes. Tech should remain an entry level class with test questions emphasizing VHF/UHF operating skills including repeater protocol.